Course requirements and set-up: This course uses the text Nina McIntosh's The Educated Heart, by Laura Allen (Amazon is one, perhaps the best, source. Just be aware that if you purchase the text from a third-party seller on Amazon or other online retailer, you may not have access to student resources from the publisher.)

Each chapter has an open-book, fill-in-the-blank quiz, on which an 80% grade must be obtained. Further, using the American Bowen Academy code of ethics, the student will give examples of scenarios in which the code of ethics will serve as a guide to appropriate behaviors. The quizzes for all chapters and the code of ethics will be emailed to the student upon enrollment.

Upon successful completion of the quizzes and the code of ethics scenarios, a link will be provided to a multiple-choice final exam, which will be given on an automatically-graded online platform, and on which a grade of 80% must be obtained.
